

Kenmare on Fire

Ireland, a Nation known for its people and forty shades of green is the foundation of everything we are about. It is this heritage that we draw on for our menu at the Park Hotel Kenmare. The soil, centuries of knowledge and the freshness that only the windswept rugged west of Ireland Atlantic shores can provide is the playground for our chefs.

We invite you to enjoy the most succulent food with elements of our dishes cooked over coals and smouldering embers, using every bit of the fire and wood smoke to impart wonderful flavour.

We hope you fully enjoy an evening to savour.

Thank you for joining us.
